

HEAD OF THE HOUSE

By Pill Pugh

A check list:

WHO pays the bills, does the washing and ironing, puts out the cat, weeds the garden, mows the lawn, puts out the bins, takes the dog for a walk, picks up the kids after school and basketball, dishes out the cough mixture, hears the spelling, writes notes, shops, vacuums, deals with spiders, ants and flies, mends, cooks, cleans up, tidies, clears the spouting, polishes the car, keeps the teenagers nice, and remembers the birthdays, etc., etc...?

So WHO is the head of the house?

My sister left me a plaque which reads thus...

Christ is the Head of this House
The Unseen Guest
at every meal
The Silent Listener
to every Conversation
"FOR ME TO LIVE IS CHRIST"
Philippians: 1:21

Reflection:

This resides in our passage and faces us as we round a corner. A constant reminder that He is with us daily and however irksome things can be, the love of Christ makes our house a home, where all living is shared.
