

LIVING WITH COVID

By Geoff Serpell

At such a time as this we all need each other, with people caring for each other, whether we are long-time friends or passing acquaintances.

When we are required to be social distancing, in many instances we have become closer to each other.

From shopping for groceries or travelling around the world, nothing can presently be taken for granted.

Borders are either shut or liable to be closed overnight depending on the spread of infection.

One thing though, we can all be sure of, things will get better in time.

The future may be uncertain but with preparation, hope and caring for each other we can and will weather the current storm together.

Reflection:

Acts 2:44: All the believers were together and had everything in common.

Bequest

Remember the Church in your will.

A bequest will help continue to work of the Church long after you're gone. There are many ways a bequest can help the work of the Church - whether for a specific cause that's dear to your heart, for a specific congregation or for the general purposes of the life of the Church.
