

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON

By Bill Pugh

God's calendar of life perfectly ordered, beautifully set out for us in the Book of Ecclesiastes.

We face a new year in 2023. We have our own personal calendars on the kitchen wall.

So many dates to fill in. Appointments, birthdays, special occasions, meetings, how will we have time to go on holidays and do other personal things?

And of course there are our responsibilities for our Christian faith and life, our Church.

We are surrounded by busyness. Sundays are like other days.

We need to do something about the order of our lives.

What are our real priorities for 2023?

Are we seeking first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness?

Let's all take time to think, plan and set out essentials.

Pray and talk to a Christian friend, or minister, for guidance.

Reflection:

Helpful scripture comes from the Book of Lamentations.

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Bequest

Remember the Church in your will.

A bequest will help continue to work of the Church long after you're gone. There are many ways a bequest can help the work of the Church – whether for a specific cause that's dear to your heart, for a specific congregation or for the general purposes of the life of the Church.
