

Love one another

By Geoff Serpell

We are uniquely different to and from each other, with strengths and weaknesses to be dealt with during our lives.

Love the differences in our spouses, neighbours, and friends rather than wasting time trying to change each other.

Carl Rogers said: "When I walk on the beach to watch the sunset, I do not call out, 'a little more orange over to the right please', or 'would you mind giving us less purple in the back?' No, enjoy the always different sunsets as they are. We do well to do the same with people we love."

Reflection:

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples. If you love one another."

John 13:34
