

WE CAN ALL BE SAMARITANS

By Bill Pugh

The story of the good Samaritan is a lovely parable and its scene seems so far away, not in our time or experience.

Yet an elderly neighbour may need a hand to unload the shopping from his car.

A good luck message to kids going to school at the beginning of term brings a smile.

A neighbour who has been unwell and stuck at home can be cheered up by a visit and an offer to buy food from the local supermarket.

And, of course, donations to the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, or the local hospital are Samaritan gifts.

Samaritans are needed in daily life.

The needy are close.

The Samaritan spirit is beckoning in many ways, every day, for us to act.

MORE MONEY FOR MISSION

God calls us to be wise and generous stewards of the resources with which we have been blessed.

The UCA Vic Tas now provides a new opportunity for congregations to more fully live into this calling by transitioning real estate assets into shares in an ethical fund.
