

GOD'S ASSETS

By Bill Pugh

There are many of God's assets.

One was our church cleaner, who lived over and up the road from our little church.

Before every service she was there to make sure our church was tidy.

Before and after funerals she was on duty.

There were no payments for any service, she was God's volunteer.

And she had a lovely garden providing flowers in season and green cuttings off season.

And she never missed a service.

How fortunate we were to have her ministry.

She is now in heaven and I am sure she has a fitting reward for her dedication.

She will be busy in the house of many mansions.

GIFTS AND DONATIONS

Gifts, major donations & trusts – help the work of the Church today

Gifts can take many forms, including cash, shares, real or things such as valuable paintings. Some people choose to establish a trust which commences during their lifetime, others choose to establish a testamentary gift (bequest) in their will, others as a memorial to a loved one.
