

EVEN THE LEAST

By Bill Pugh

Two campers were walking along a bush track.

Around a bend they came upon a feathery bundle, a bush cockatoo, too injured to fly.

What could they possibly do, except speak reassuringly and sprinkle a few drops of water on its beak?

And then Heaven took a hand.

The wounded bird opened its wings, in one glorious display towards the setting sun, and was peacefully still.

And we buried the beautiful creature deep in the bush, away from disturbances.

Dear Lord, thank you that Heaven is always open to welcome the soul of one of your little ones, even on a bush track. Amen.

MORE MONEY FOR MISSION

God calls us to be wise and generous stewards of the resources with which we have been blessed.

The UCA Vic Tas now provides a new opportunity for congregations to more fully live into this calling by transitioning real estate assets into shares in an ethical fund.
