The Archives
of the Uniting Church in Victoria and Tasmania and its staff and volunteers.

This is a large and valued collection of historical records from the beginning of settlement in our States. It covers the three Churches (Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian) that formed the Uniting Church in 1977.

It is a safe and useful place to donate your papers, photographs, stories and other records. Records are stored commercially off-site, in a secure environment, supported by endowments and by fees paid for access.
