

Intercultural Ministry: Hope For A Changing World

Edited by Grace Ji-Sun Kim and Jann Aldedge-Clanton

$27.50

Why are most churches still segregated by race and culture? Is it possible to build intercultural ministries today? What are the challenges of creating and maintaining these ministries? How do intercultural churches give equal power and privilege to each culture? How do they avoid assimilating minority cultures into dominant cultures?

This book explores these questions and more with chapters from a racially and denominationally diverse group of pastors, theologians, and teachers who reflect on their experiences and experiments in intercultural ministry.

Contributors include Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Amy Butler, Brad Braxton, Brandon Green, Daniel Hill, Angie Hong, Karen Oliveto, Carlos Ruiz, Sheila Sholes-Ross, Christine Smith, and more!

Order your copy here

The Color Of Church

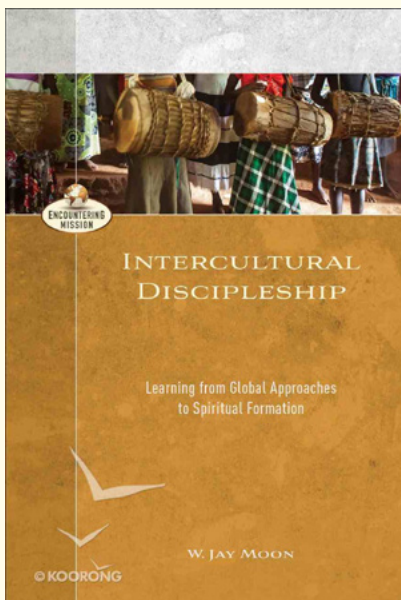

By Rodney M Woo

$34.50

Woo establishes a biblical foundation for multi-racial ministry, provides a clear picture of the current reality of the relationship among the races in our society and churches, and offers practical guidance to help implement multiethnic ministry. Woo takes the reader step-by-step through the multi-racial transformation of a congregation.

As pastor of Wilcrest Baptist Church in Alief, Texas for more than 17 years, Woo led this church from an all-Anglo declining congregation in a transitional neighbourhood into a multi-racial congregation that is now more than 65 per cent non-white with more than 44 different countries.

Order your copy here

Intercultural Discipleship

W Jay Moon

$43

This addition to an acclaimed series brings cutting-edge research to bear on a topic of perennial interest: making disciples. The book looks at disciple-making from multiple cultures to help readers discover contextual approaches that are culturally relevant and biblically faithful. It emphasises methods that are especially effective with contemporary converts and includes practical examples from around the world. Each chapter includes sidebars, discussion questions, an activity for discipling, and a case study. An appendix contains further suggestions and exercises for instructors.

Order your copy here

Leading Cross-Culturally

By Sherwood G Lingenfelter

$29.50

As the US becomes more diverse, cross-cultural ministry is increasingly important for nearly all pastors and church leaders. Of particular concern is the issue of leadership a difficult task made even more challenging in multicultural settings.

Lingenfelter helps the reader understand his or her own leadership culture (and its blind spots), examine it critically in light of scripture, and become an effective learner of other cultural perspectives on leadership. He also confronts the issues of power inherent in any leadership situation.

Lingenfelter carefully defines cross-cultural leadership and unpacks that definition, with an emphasis on building communities of vision, trust, and empowerment through leadership based on biblical principles. In the end, he argues that leaders must inhabit the gospel story to be effective cross culturally.

Order your copy here

Cultural Insights For Christian Leaders

Douglas McConnell

$8

This volume helps leaders and leaders-in-training become students of culture who can then contextualise what they learn for their own organisational settings. McConnell, a respected leader in the worlds of missiology and higher education, enables readers to understand intercultural dynamics so they can shape their organisational cultures and lead their organisations in a missional direction. This is the latest volume in an award-winning series emphasising mission as partnership with Christians around the globe.

Order your copy here

Churches, Cultures & Leadership

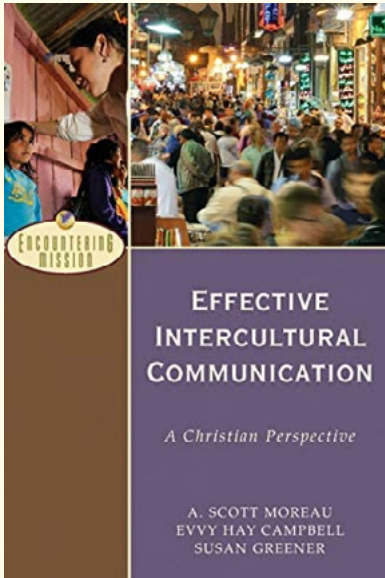

By Mark Lau Branson & Juan F Martinez

$32

As the church continues to hear and heed Christ's call to reflect the multi-ethnic character of his people, pastors and lay leaders need to gain skills and competencies to serve in those contexts. This book equips such leaders to create environments that make God's reconciling initiatives apparent in church life and in our missional engagement with neighbourhoods and cities.

The authors take an inter-disciplinary approach that integrates biblical and theological study with the disciplines of sociology, cultural anthropology and communications. The result is a rich blend of astute analysis with guidance for practical implementation of a deeper intercultural life for the church.

Order your copy here

Effective Intercultural Communication

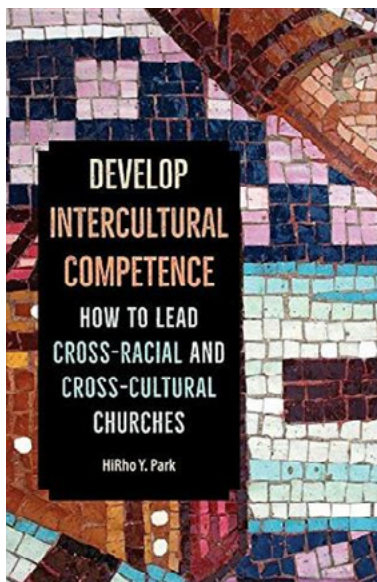

A Scott Moreau, Evvy Hay Campbell & Susan Greener

$46.50

With the development of instantaneous global communication, it is vital to communicate effectively across cultural boundaries. This addition to the acclaimed Encountering Mission series is designed to offer contemporary intercultural communication insights to mission students and practitioners.

Authored by leading missionary scholars with significant intercultural experience, the book explores the cultural values that show up in intercultural communication and examines how we can communicate effectively in a new cultural setting. Features such as case studies, tables, figures, and sidebars are included, making the book useful for classrooms.

Order your copy here

Develop Intercultural Competence

By HiRho Y Park

$8

Park's latest work identifies best practices and offers practical tips and case studies for leading diverse and vital congregations. The book shows readers how to navigate the growing complexities of race, ethnicity, culture, and religion and find appropriate and effective ways to make disciples of Jesus Christ in their context.

Park offers innovative, evidence-based guidance to help leaders foster culturally intelligent faith communities and coaches them so they can drive innovation and champion a culture of call in their local communities.

Order your copy here