

Spaces
for hire at the Centre for Theology and Ministry

The Centre for Theology and Ministry is a state of the art, architecturally-designed space in the heart of Parkville. Nestled amongst larger University of Melbourne Colleges, the building offers four lecture spaces, suitable for lectures, scholarly presentations or gatherings and meetings.

All four spaces offer inbuilt zoom and audio-visual facilities allowing your event to be online and in person.

Our Auditorium is a historical theological hall and offers soaring ceilings perfect for concerts, music rehearsals or formal presentations. We also have a tranquil chapel, suitable for more intimate gatherings of worshippers. Separate lounge, breakout and eating areas also available.

Yaarkon

GI

Yaarkon (GI)

Yaarkon is designed predominantly as a meeting space, providing users with a large central table, comfortable seats and zoom facilities that focus on an interactive experience.

This room has much larger desks than the other spaces to facilitate meetings and all day discussions, with the paraphernalia such as paperwork and files, which come with said meetings.

Yagalaith

G2

Yagalaith (G2)

Yagalaith is one of two larger lectorial spaces which can be combined with Ngarrgu to create one space. This room features six large round tables, ideal for small group work or for collaborative classes, with up to 30 people seated at any given time.

Alternatively, this space can be set up concert style, allowing for the same number of people, but in a style more suited to an alternative event.

Yagalaith is the base room for our audiovisual system, and its microphone extends beyond that of the other rooms.

As such, it's ideal for blended learning situations where speakers are likely to move around the space, or when those in the classroom are going to be engaging with online participants.

Ngarrgu

G3

Ngarrgu (G3)

Ngarrgu is the same size as Yagalaith, and is one of the larger lectorial spaces we have available.

This room has 15 individual desks with one chair at each. This is the most ideal space for teaching a standard classroom as all the desks face the front of the room. Ngarrgu is also fully zoom enabled to allow for blended learning and hybrid model lessons. This space can also be set up in a concert style for 30 people.

Yagalaith and Ngarrgu can be combined to create one space. This is a popular option for a range of situations, including:

- Events which have a blend of both traditional lecture style learning and interactive learning. The larger space can have a classroom style at one end of the room, and hands on activities at the other end of the room
- Events which will have food or drinks served throughout the day. The larger space can accommodate for food and drinks at one end of the space, and a teaching or learning space at the other end.

- Any other alternative set ups such as large circles of participants, concert style set ups for up to 60 people, that require the in-built audio visual system in order to stream to online participants, and more

Wirraway (G4)

Wirraway is a smaller lectional space ideal for classes with fewer participants who want to interact with one another in a more discussion based space or in a classroom style layout for smaller groups.

The space is set up with tables in a u-shape, with one larger table in the middle. It's designed for 10 people to sit at the tables, but can fit more in this configuration if need be.

Bagung Foyer

Set between Yuma Auditorium and the tutorial rooms, the Bagung Foyer is a comfortable space for your hospitality needs.

The foyer is set up with three large round tables and can accommodate up to 24 people seated, and approximately 40-50 standing. Alternatively, the tables can be removed to maximise usage. It also features a large servery where catering can be served, as well as a bench along the back with a sink and dishwasher and space for a tea/coffee station.

We can arrange catering through our onsite cafe, Sage & Grace. For options, please contact us on 03 9340 8800

Yuma Auditorium (previously Wysleaskie)

The Auditorium is our largest space and grandest space, with hardwood floors, stained glass windows and dramatic ceiling heights, which create beautiful acoustics. As such, this space is enormously popular as a concert venue, rehearsal space and event space.

Used regularly by choirs, chamber orchestras, opera singers and other musical groups, the auditorium is perfect for a range of events, and has been used for everything from formal dinners to creating recordings.

The audio visual system was currently upgraded and is now equipped for Zoom connectivity and screens for presentations and displays. Please inform us if you would like to utilise this equipment so we can arrange a brief training session.

The space can be set up in a range of ways, and we are always happy to accommodate alternative set ups if required.

We also have a small stage which can be set up for concerts and presentations.
